

The Adair County News.

VOLUME X-X

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1916.

NUMBER 23

DAVID DULWORTH

The above is a perfect picture of David Dulworth, who is a son of Mr and Mrs. J. A. Dulworth, of Camp Knox, Green county. Last year he was a student in the Lindsey-Wilson Training School, this place, and was the champion football player, the team winning every game during the season. Some months ago he went South and has developed into a successful wrestler. He has had several bouts with professionals, holding his own in each contest. A few nights ago he met Frank Hartley, an English Champion, in the Paramount theater, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and defeated him. Hundreds witnessed the match, and the fans went wild over Dave. Dave's trainer says he bids fair to become the champion heavy weight wrestler of the world.

Big Sale.

The public sale at the home of Mr. Bert Epperson, last Wednesday, drew the largest crowd seen at a sale in this county for many years. Bidding was spirited and everything sold high. Give some prices, as follows:

Corn, $4.80 per barrel; oats, 65c per bushel; sheep, 7 ewes and 12 lambs, $106.00; 1 Jersey cow, $53.00; 1 Short Horn cow, $72.00; 2 yearling calves, $67.00; 3 calves, $80.00. Hogs sold high.

Farming implements, household goods brought good money.

Five shows at the Parlor Circle this week, all good ones. The nights are Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Turn out, every body. The Broken Coin is Growing in interest. You can not afford to miss it.

We understand that there will be a memorial meeting at the Confederate Monument, Green River Bridge, the 4th of July. Col. Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, will be the principal orator. It will evidently draw many people together.

Mrs. S. D. Barbee fell at her residence one day last week, fracturing two of her ribs. She suffered much pain for several days, but is better at this time.

Mr. Fred Myers, of this place, has invented an automobile brake which has created considerable interest among the manufacturers throughout the country.

Baptist Services.

Thursday morning, at eleven o'clock, Rev. W. L. Brook, State Sunday School Secretary, will preach at the Baptist Church. Mrs. Bose, who will accompany him, will address the ladies. Rev. O. P. Bush.

Farm for Sale.

I have a farm of 125 acres lying on Sulphur Creek, eight miles from Columbia, for sale. It joins Peter Gooden, and is one-half mile from Stanford road. Marcus Ellis, 23-3t Absher, Ky.

Mr. J. D. Lowe, who went to Nashville for his fall samples, has returned and is now ready to meet the trade. His house is well-known, and Mr. Lowe enjoys the reputation of being a most courteous salesman.

The many friends of Mr. S. C. Neat will be glad to learn that he is again on the road, having accepted a position with the old reliable firm Altscheler & Co. Wait for him.

On account of the meeting at the Methodist Church, there will be no prayer meeting at the Presbyterian Church this week.

The Columbia Fair date is August 22. Last week we gave the date as the 15th, which was a mistake.

Mr. John Graves, of Coburg, owns a Chester White sow that found twenty pigs a few nights ago.

Church Attendance.

The church attendance in Columbia for the past few months, has been on the wane. It is not only proper, but it is the duty of every church member to be a worshiper in his or her congregation on the Sabbath day. If there are no services in the church to which a member belongs, then some other church should be attended. Every body should strive to make the world better, and waiting upon the Lord in His houses of worship is the most effective way. Get in the habit of being regular in your attendance and those who have been dilatory will follow your example.

A special Children's program will be presented at the Parlor Circle Friday night, under the auspices of the Self Culture Club. Bring your children.

Mrs. J. C. Strange, who is an experienced saleslady, has accepted a position in Mr. T. E. Waggener's store. Her father, Mr. J. V. White, has been quite sick for some time, but he has sufficiently recovered to enable her to leave his bedside. She invites all her friends to call and see her at the store where she will take a delight in showing all the latest designs in spring and summer dress goods.

All Woodmen and their families should be at the Parlor Circle this (Wednesday) night.

Dr. S. P. Miller, the county health officer, informs the News that the small pox patients in the southern portion of the county, twelve miles from Columbia, are much better and will soon be well. He also stated that the cases on the Burkesville pike, in the colored settlement, had been discharged. If no new cases develop the county will soon be rid of the disease.

Messrs. Geo. A. Smith, Sr., Geo. A. Smith, Jr., and 'Squire Melvin Conover recently purchased the Andrew farm, near Glenville, for $7,200. Mr. Geo. A. Smith, Jr., has removed from Russell county to the farm.

"The Man Who Came Back" will be put on at the Parlor Circle this (Wednesday) night the 5th. J. W. Dehart, State Lecturer for the Modern Woodmen, will be here to explain the picture as it comes off the reel.

For Sale.

A good mare for sale. T. M. Shearer, Columbia, Ky. 23-2t.

Mr. G. L. Jones, of Hatcher, owner of Mountain Dare, one of the finest stallions in the world, will be in Columbia Saturday April 8, with this fine horse. He wants to see every farmer in the county who owns good mares. Meet him on the square and take a look at this fine animal.

Mrs. L. W. Baldauf entertained at 500 last Friday night. The evening was delightfully spent. The following were present: Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Russell; Misses Minnie Triplett, Gwendolyn Bayless, Madge Rosenfield; Messrs. Edgar Reed, Wm. Sweets.

The series of meetings which commenced at the Methodist church last Sunday, is being well attended. Rev. W. R. Wagoner is doing the preaching. The song service is being led by Prof. Smith.

The Board of Trustees ordained last Monday night that concrete walks must be made from Mrs. Marcum's residence, on both sides of the street, to the Graded school building.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning. Every member is urged to be present.

To Mule Men.

My large Jack will make the season at my barn, in Columbia, Ky. Fee, $8.00, to insure a living colt. H. B. Ingram. 21-4t

The Methodist Sunday-School of this place, last week, sent the Methodist Orphan Home, Louisville, two cases of eggs.

Louis Pace, who was given from 8 to 21 years in the penitentiary for participating in the murder of Town Marshall Thurman, will appeal his case, a motion for a new trial having been overruled.

The bond issue was defeated in Casey county by a majority of 333. The issue carried in Metcalfe by a substantial majority.

Business Should be Active.

There is no reason why all classes of business should not be active. There is a ready market for hogs, cattle and mules, and they have brought thousands of dollars to Adair county in the last few months. Besides the poultry and egg business has been immense. All that is necessary to see business in Adair county, is the loosening of the purse strings. Evidently there is a vast total sum of money in this county that is being hoarded. Turn it loose and let us have good times.

Do not fail to see "The Man Who Came Back," Parlor Circle.

Singing and Preaching.

A note from Rev. I. M. Grimsley says: I have just closed a short term in vocal music at Mt. Vernon church. The progress was good.

On the third Sunday in April I will be at the same church and will sing at 9:30 a. m. Will preach at 11 o'clock and will sing in the afternoon. There will be duets and quartets. There will also be several recitations.

Eighteen dollars for Missions was collected at the Liberty Sunday-school. I am training a class in vocal music at Russell Springs. The work promises to be a success.

For Sale.

Two single comb Rhode Island Red cockerels. Mrs. Josh Butler.

Mr. Melvin Petty, who sold goods at Picnic, Adair county, became involved, and in order to satisfy judgments Sheriff Mitchell was ordered to close his store and make sales, at public auction until the debts were satisfied. He had one sale last week and another will follow in a short time. Mr. Petty has left the county, and his whereabouts are not known here.

Durham & Hurt, representing Grinstead Company, the old reliable poultry dealers, broke all previous records in shipping eggs, last week, from this place. They bought 435 cases of eggs, a full large carload, and 10,000 pounds of poultry, two-thirds of a car. They paid out $3,343.27.

A. M. F. Hill, County Judge of Russell county, has appointed Mr. Reuben Campbell Jailer of said county, to fill the position until the next election. This action was taken on account of Rufus Campbell, who was the jailer, and who died two weeks ago. W. S. Leach is deputy jailer.

For Sale.

Our three houses and lots. One located on Bomar Heights, with one acre of ground. The other two in White City. Also 10 acres of timbered land. Now we want to sell and now is your opportunity, if you want property in town. We will sell at a bargain. Reason for selling want to go to Indiana. For further information call on 20-2m. T. G. Rasner & Sons.

Mr. Jo Knifley will commence his residence at once. Mr. H. C. Feese will be the foreman on the job. Mr. Feese stated to the News that he hoped to have the building completed by the first of June. It will be a two-story six room dwelling, modern style.

Mr. Frank Leach, of Jamestown, was in Columbia last Wednesday, en route for Louisville. He informed The News that in a very short time Russell county would let the contract for the building of about twelve miles of the Dixie Highway.

Miss Emma Belden, of Liberty, met with a stroke of paralysis, while on the train, returning from Louisville, a few days ago, but she will recover. Miss Belden is a milliner and is known to a good many residents of Columbia.

If you are ruptured use only a Smithsonian Truss. Sold by Page & Hamilton. 19-1t

Born, to the wife of Dr. P. H. Conover, of Mt. Vernon, Ky., March 30, 1916, a son. The advent took place at the home of Mrs. Conover's parents, this city. Mother and baby doing nicely.

A large crowd in town Monday, county court. Some fine stock was on exhibition, and the merchants had a fine run of trade.

An Enjoyable Occasion.

The Key Club of the L. W. T. S., was entertained last Thursday afternoon in the reception room of the Girls' Dormitory, by Miss Gwendolyn Bayless.

The program consisted of a reading by Miss Sallie E. Murphy, the history of a book, by Miss Katie Murrell, and a recitation by Miss Eva Cook.

A flower contest was then introduced in which Miss Ruby Pedigo was winner.

Delightful refreshments were served which were highly enjoyed by all.

Those present were: Mrs. C. M. Russell and Miss Katie Murrell, honorary members; Misses Callie McFarland, Alyce Cann, Gwendolyn Bayless, Margie Buster, Eva Cook, Lucy McFarland, Mae Brockman, Dollie Elliott, Ruba Wagoner, May Feese, Virginia Coffey, Christine Nell, Ruby Pedigo, Hattie Wilborn, Esther Dodson, Sallie E. Murphy, Maxine Moss, Willia Petty and Margaret Murrell.

Percheron Stallion.

My Percheron Stallion—Judas, will serve at my farm for $10.00 to insure a living colt. He needs no recommendation further than to see his colts. They have the form and size, two essentials necessary for serviceable stock. If you want to raise mules you had better secure some large mares and by breeding to Judas you are in the right line. He is a fine breeder and his colts bring the highest price. You will make no mistake in patroning him. A word to the wise is sufficient. John N. Conover, Two miles south of Columbia.

Stray Sow.

A black sow has been at my place for 4 months. Weight, 155 pounds. Hole in left ear and underbit in same; split in the right, and 2 hacks in right ear. E. O. Cheatham, Picnic, Ky.

Base Ball.

The base ball season will open Saturday when Lindsey-Wilson lines up against the Russell county team. The Lindsey-Wilson boys have been practicing for some time and are getting in good shape. Russell county intends to bring the best team in its domain, and is confident of winning. Come and enjoy the new grand stand. It promises to be a hard-fought game and it is doubtful who will win. Game called at 3:30, p. m. Admission 20c.

Lost.—A pocket book containing papers. L. B. Hurt.

Stock Items.

A yoke of oxen sold on the public square Monday for $80.00.

Sam Burdette made the following sales: One horse mule, 5 years old, $150.

A fine saddle mare to Claud Pendleton, of Elizabethtown, price private. It was however the highest price ever paid for a mare in Adair county.

Special Offer.

For a short time will furnish the daily Evening Post, Louisville, Home and Farm, Kentucky Governor's War map and the Adair County News, all one year for $3.25. The map itself is worth $1.50, but by accepting this offer you get it for almost nothing.

Earl Robinson, a two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers fell from the porch, at his grandfather's residence, last Thursday afternoon, breaking one of his legs above the knee. Drs. Cartwright and Hindman reduced the fracture, and at this writing the little fellow is getting along finely.

A good milk cow for sale. T. E. Waggener. 22-2t

J. C. Ramsey, charged with defrauding, in Cumberland county, was arrested in Campbellsville last Saturday at the instance of Sheriff Mitchell, this county, who held the warrant, and who sent it to Campbellsville. The prisoner was conveyed to Burkesville by deputy Sheriff Clyde Crenshaw.

The marriage of Miss Oma Whited and Rev. Perry L. Wolf will take place at the home of the bride to be mother's, Mrs. Tavia Whited, near Garlin, Sunday afternoon April 9th.

Mr. Frank Shepherd and Miss Mary Cravens were married at Sano, Russell county, last Sunday.
